AUTUMN TUTTROEN

University of Regina
Bachelor, Social Work

Autumn, a Saulteaux woman with familial roots in Skownan First Nation, is entering her fourth year in the Bachelor of Social Work program with the University of Regina. She is also a student at the University of Saskatchewan where she volunteers and works. Autumn acts as a mentor and serves as a role model in her volunteerism and employment holistically assisting Indigenous students. She intends to attain a master's degree in social work so that she can continue to serve her community.

JULIA LOUIE

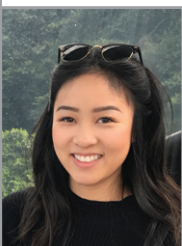

University of British Columbia
Bachelor, Sciences - Nursing

Julia graduated with honours from Burnaby North Secondary in 2018 and will be attending the University of British Columbia in the fall. She looks forward to continuing her studies and has accepted admission into the arts program. Participating in her school's first aid program and her interests in medicine has sparked a passion for nursing and she wishes to pursue this in the future. In her spare time Julia enjoys hiking, kayaking and spending time with friends and family.

EMMA LOUIE

University of British Columbia
Bachelor, Dietetics

Emma is a fourth year undergraduate student pursuing a Bachelor's of Science with a major in Dietetics at the University of British Columbia. She hopes to pursue a career as a Registered Dietitian. Emma's interests in cooking and food literacy have led her to become a program leader for afterschool cooking programs and volunteer with various dietitians in private practice, sports nutrition, clinical nutrition, and community settings. In her spare time, Emma enjoys playing volleyball, hiking, yoga, and traveling.

AIMEN KASHIF

University of Toronto – Scarborough
Bachelor, Human Biology (Life Sciences)

I go to University of Toronto Scarborough Campus. I am double majoring in Human Biology and Health Studies to achieve my Bachelors in Science with the intention to go to medical school to become a doctor. I have received honors throughout my years in middle and high school. In my free time I love to read and play sports, trying to be active in the community. I have volunteered in hospitals, charity events and special events coordinated by the city counselor. My goal is to become a doctor for the benefit of humanity as I always want to be part of the solution not the problem. I hope my achievements can lead to helping others in every way possible.

DIANE WATSON

University of Calgary
Bachelor of Arts - Sociology & Bachelor of Education

Diana is currently entering the fourth year of her concurrent Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Education degrees at the University of Calgary. She has successfully made the Dean's Honour Roll for the past two academic years. Upon graduation, Diana will hold a Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in Sociology and a Bachelor of Education degree, majoring in Early Childhood Education. With these degrees, she plans to have a meaningful and positive impact on our future generations by becoming a kindergarten teacher. Every week, Diana is committed to giving back to her community by volunteering with the Calgary Public Library, as a Play Champion. In her free time, Diana pursues her passion for travel, hiking, and the great outdoors. ■
