Class A Voting Member

Organizations must identify one member who will be the main contact and be entitled to voting privileges for the organization (CPA's by-laws state that each organization is entitled to only one vote). In addition to voting privileges, the Class A member is entitled to all benefits, privileges, and special member's rates for conference registration, training programs, etc.

Class B Non-Voting Member

An organization may hold multiple Class B memberships in addition to the single Class A voting member. With the exception of voting privileges, Class B members are entitled to all the benefits of membership.

Note: Memberships expire on December 31 of each year. Memberships are non-refundable and non-transferable.

By joining the Canadian Parking Association membership, expressed consent is implied for the CPA to contact you via email, in addition to other means available. You may opt out from receiving electronic commercial messages at any time by selecting the unsubscribe option on future messages.
